10. Upon information and belief, that during the time heretofore and at all times hereinafter mentioned, City Marshal Matthew Regan and City Marshal Justin P. Grossman were both New York City Marshals, appointed by the Mayor of the City of New York.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 11. Venue is proper in New York County pursuant to CPLR 503(a) as it is the county in which a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred.
- 12. Further, venue is proper in New York County pursuant to CPLR 503(a) as it is where both Defendants 400 West 59th and Brodsky reside.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

- 13. Upon information and belief, Defendant 400 West 59th is the owner of the apartment building located at 1 Columbus Place, New York NY 10019 (referred to as "1 Columbus Place", the "building", or the "premises").
- 14. Upon information and belief, Defendant Brodsky is the management company for 1 Columbus Place.
- 15. Plaintiff Fusari was a long-time tenant of 1 Columbus Place, New York NY 10019, Apt. S31B (the "Apartment").
- 16. Plaintiff is a Grammy-winning record producer and songwriter who has produced songs for well-known, prominent recording artists.
- 17. Due to Plaintiff's work schedule, he often travelled for much of the year.
- 18. As Plaintiff was largely absent, he rarely made monthly rent payments. Instead, the building would periodically contact the Plaintiff every few months with an accounting of what was due. Plaintiff would then make payment for several months at one time. For years, this was the established course of dealing between Plaintiff and the building.

CAUTION: THIS DOCUMENT HAS NOT YET BEEN REVIEWED BY THE COUNTY CLERK. (See below.) INDEX NO. UNASSIGNED

RECEIVED NYSCEF: 01/04/2019

- 19. Sometime in early 2017, unbeknownst to Plaintiff, the building began eviction proceedings to remove him from the apartment.
- 20. At the time, Plaintiff was travelling on business. Despite corresponding with Plaintiff via e-mail and phone for years, Plaintiff was never contacted about the eviction.
- 21. As Plaintiff was unaware of the eviction, he had never removed his possessions from the apartment. Thus, a Marshal, from the City of New York was required to conduct an inventory.
- 22. On or about March 21, 2017, City Marshal Matthew Regan, filling in for City Marshal Justin P. Grossman ("Marshal Grossman"), conducted the inventory.
- 23. Pursuant to the New York City Marshals Handbook of Regulations, Chapter 4, Section 6-5, entitled "Inventory of Property," all marshals are required to prepare a written inventory of all items contained in the premises of any tenant to be evicted. This includes all appliances and the marshal is required to give a description and condition of each item in the apartment.
- 24. Marshal Grossman did not conduct a proper inventory. While the Marshal inventory lists inspection of Plaintiff's kitchen cabinets, chairs table, stools, refrigerator and microwave oven, Marshal Grossman did not inspect the stove and/or oven.
- 25. Pursuant to the New York City Marshals Handbook of Regulations, Chapter 4, Section 6-5, entitled "Inventory of Property," in the event money is discovered, the marshal must leave it in the custody of the local police precinct.
- 26. At the conclusion of the inventory conducted by Marshal Grossman, there was no documentation that any money was found. An agent for landlord Defendant 400 W. 59th St. agreed in writing to release Marshal Grossman from any liability and assume full responsibility for all property on the premises.

27. Later that day, Baya Inc. was hired by the building to move and store the contents of the apartment.

- 28. As Baya Inc. was finishing the move and the apartment was empty, an employee of the building who was present told them, "there's money in the oven."
- 29. Inside the oven was a locked, heavy-duty Husky storage case (the "case"). Mysteriously, the buildings' employee knew there was money inside the locked case.
- 30. Much later, when the Plaintiff was able to obtain and inspect the case, it was discovered that someone had used a tool to remove a piece of the case to pry it open and access its contents. The lock remained intact.
- 31. The New York City Police Department ("NYPD") was contacted by the building to take custody of the case and its contents.
- 32. Upon investigation, the NYPD discovered $85,300.00 inside the tampered case and held it for safekeeping.
- 33. NYPD Officer Edward Raso identified Defendant Yovanny De La Cruz aka Yovanny De La Cruz Guzman, an employee of the building, as the finder of the property.
- 34. The following day, miraculously, Ronan Kearney ("Kearney") of Defendant Brodsky was able to get in contact with the Plaintiff via e-mail to inform Plaintiff that he had been evicted and that money had been located.
- 35. Kearney contradicted the findings of the NYPD. Instead, he attempted to shift the blame to the moving company, Baya, Inc., alleging, that a moving company located the personal property of the Plaintiff inside an appliance while removing his belongings.
- 36. Words could not describe Plaintiff's shock when he discovered what transpired. Plaintiff had no idea he was being evicted. For years, Plaintiff would periodically make payments for accepted for filing by the County Clerk.

several months at a time without incident. This entire situation could have been resolved by a simple phone call, or e-mail, as they had done in the past.

- 37. Even more shocking was someone from the building had broken into the case. The case did not originally contain $85,300.00, but $350,000.00. A total of $264,700.00 had been stolen.
- 38. It has been established by both the NYPD and Baya, Inc. that it was an employee of the building that located the briefcase.
- 39. Additionally, Baya, Inc. has confirmed that the case was already broken when they arrived, and the building staff already knew of its contents.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION (Conversion)

- 40. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.
- 41. As set forth above, Defendants have engaged in acts designed to misappropriate and convert $264,700.00 of Plaintiff's funds for themselves.
- 42. As a result of their wrongful acts set forth above, Defendants have exercised unauthorized dominion and control over Plaintiff's assets, to the exclusion of Plaintiff's rights, and to Plaintiff's detriment.
- 43. Plaintiff has made a demand for the return of the stolen funds, and the Defendants' refusal to return the funds to its true owner created the underlying cause of action in conversion.
- 44. As a direct and proximate result of this misconduct, Plaintiff has sustained substantial losses and damages totaling $264,700.00.
- 45. Defendants' conduct was intentional, wanton, malicious, fraudulent and shocking to the conscience, and was perpetrated in total disregard for Plaintiff's rights. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants should be liable, jointly and severally, for the $264,700.00 in stolen funds, plus punitive damages in the amount of at least $1,000,000.00, so as to deter themselves and others similarly inclined from perpetrating in the future such acts of misconduct as were committed by the defendants, plus prejudgment interest, the precise amount to be determined at trial.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION (Breach of Fiduciary Duty)

46. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

47. As set forth above, Defendants were responsible for safeguarding Plaintiff's property and assumed full responsibility for the property. This included the duty to: (a) to refrain from converting Plaintiff's $264,700.00 in funds for their own use; (b) not to engage in activities detrimental to the safe return of Plaintiff's property; (c) to prevent loss or damage to Plaintiff's property; and (d) not to misappropriate Plaintiff's property.

foregoing, defendants should be liable, jointly and severally, for the $264,700.00 in stolen funds, others similarly inclined from perpetrating in the future such acts of misconduct as were

INDEX NO. UNASSIGNED

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION (Unjust Enrichment)

51. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

52. As detailed above, Defendants obtained $264,700.00 in stolen funds. Defendants have exercised dominion and control over such funds and converted them for their own purpose.

53. By reason of the foregoing, the Defendants have been unjustly enriched in the amount of $25,000.00.

54. Defendants acts in converting Plaintiffs' funds rose to the level of criminal conduct for which punitive damages should be awarded in excess of the amount converted.

55. The Defendants' conduct was intentional, wanton, malicious, fraudulent and shocking to the conscience, and was perpetrated in total disregard for the Plaintiff's rights. By reason of the foregoing, defendants should be liable, jointly and severally, for the $264,700.00 in stolen funds, plus punitive damages in the amount of at least $1,000,000.00, so as to deter themselves and others similarly inclined from perpetrating in the future such acts of misconduct as were committed by the defendants, plus prejudgment interest, the precise amount to be determined at trial.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Respondent Superior)

56. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

57. Defendants are vicariously liable for the acts of their employees who engaged in acts designed to misappropriate and convert $264,700.00 in Plaintiff's funds, while in the course of their employment.

58. The acts of Defendants' employees were committed within the scope of the employee's employment.

of the employment.

60. The acts of Defendants' employees could have been reasonably anticipated.

61. Defendants are liable, as above, for the wrongful acts of the Defendants, even if committed outside the scope of their employment.

The misappropriation and conversion of the $264,700.00 in Plaintiff's funds were caused 62.

solely and wholly by reason of the negligence and carelessness of Defendants in the ownership, operation, management, maintenance, control, security and supervision of the premises and employees within the premises.
